The right you have to withdraw from this Credit Agreement does not affect your agreement for the purchase of the Device (which is governed by the Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement (including the Equipment Agreement)). If you withdraw from this Credit Agreement before the end of the “cooling off” period but after our Change-Your-Mind period (see your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement (including the Equipment Agreement) and details our website), you will have to repay the full Amount of Credit to purchase the Device outright.

You must repay the Amount of Credit in full without delay and, in any event, no later than 30 days after giving notice of withdrawal and you will not have to pay any interest accrued from the date the credit was provided to the date of repaying it as no interest is chargeable. Please visit an O2 store or call us on one of the numbers listed below and make payment using your debit or credit card.

9.3 If you do not exercise your right to withdraw, the Credit Agreement will remain in full force and effect and its terms and conditions will bind you.

10. Early Repayment

10.1 You have a right to repay all or part of the credit early at any time. You must give us oral or written notice of your intention to make early repayment. If you wish to repay part of the amount due, you must make payment before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day following the day that we receive your notice, or on or before any later date specified in your notice. Please give us notice orally on our number below or in writing at the address above, giving details of this Credit Agreement.

10.2 If you partially repay the credit early, we will apply the early repayment evenly across your Instalments. Important Legal Terms

12. The Credit Agreement

12.1 The Credit Agreement consists of the document signed by you and us and these Important Legal Terms. It is linked to your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement (including the Equipment Agreement). This Credit Agreement is made on the date of last signature of the Credit Agreement.

12.2 We shall advance the loan at the time you receive the Device described overleaf.

13. Repayments

13.1 You will repay the Amount of Credit, shown at clause 4 above (under the heading "Amount of Credit"), by the monthly Instalments and in accordance with the details shown at clause 6 above in the section headed "Repayments" (the "Instalments"). Punctual payment of each Instalment by direct debit by its due date is an essential term of this Credit Agreement. You will ensure that any payment authorised by you, is honoured on first presentation whether or not any payment is due from you.

13.2 Your obligation to make Repayments under this Credit Agreement is not contingent on us providing any good or service other than the Device listed in this Credit Agreement.

14. Disposal of Device

You should not dispose of the Device before you have fully repaid the Amount of Credit. Any disposal of the Device by you does not affect your obligation to repay in full the Amount of Credit under this Credit Agreement.

15. Consequences of Default and Missed Payments

15.1 In addition to the consequences of missed payments set out at clause 11, we may serve a default notice on you, on the expiry of which we may terminate the Credit Agreement and/or require you to immediately repay the outstanding balance (whether or not accrued due for payment), if you:

- (a) fail to pay us the Instalments or other sum due under this Credit Agreement on the dates they are due; or
- (b) breach this Credit Agreement in any other material way; or
- (c) materially breach the Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement (including the Equipment Agreement); or
- (d) (in the case of a breach which can be remedied) you do not remedy a breach under (a)-(c) above within the period specified in a default or similar notice from us; or
- (e) become bankrupt or are unable to pay your debts or if an interim order in bankruptcy is presented or made, or you become apparently insolvent; or
- (f) have a proposal for a voluntary arrangement made in relation to you; or
- (g) in Scotland, a grant of trust deed for the benefit of your creditors is presented or made; or
- (h) you die; or
- (i) you are convicted of an offence involving dishonesty.

15.2 If any of the events in clause 15.1 occurs, in addition to the rights under this Credit Agreement and the Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement (including the Equipment Agreement), we will also have the right to:

- (a) block your SIM Card from using Airtime Services; and/or

(b) terminate your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement.

15.3 You may be required to pay our reasonable costs (including legal costs) of collecting unpaid sums or otherwise enforcing this Credit Agreement following your default or an event described in clause 15.1. There are also the following charges for late or missed payments reflecting our reasonable administrative costs:

£5.00 Late payment charge (to cover printing and outsourcing of default notices and arrears notices required by law).

We may vary these charges to reflect the changes in our costs. The rate of interest charged on late payments is 0%.

16. Replacement of Device and Notice of Variation

16.1 If you change your Device during the Change of Mind Period or your Device is replaced under Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement or Equipment Agreement (such as where for example, the Device is faulty if you are entitled to a replacement under the Sale of Goods Act 1979 but the same Device is not reasonably available) and the monthly Instalments and Amount of Credit do not change, we may record this amendment by issuing a Notice of Variation ("NOV"). The replacement Device will be at least equivalent to the original Device. This Credit Agreement will be deemed to be amended accordingly. The NOV may be sent via email or electronically and signed by you (including by electronic signature) before this amendment takes effect.

16.2 For the avoidance of doubt, replacement of a Device under this clause 16 will not be a disposal of a Device under clause 14 which would entitle us to require you to repay the full Amount of Credit.

17. Termination of Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement and early repayment of Credit Agreement.

If your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement is terminated (for example, if you give notice to terminate it for any reason, or we receive notice from another network operator that you have used a PAC code), we will treat that as notice to terminate this Credit Agreement and, other than in circumstances where you terminate your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement as a result of our material breach, we will have the right to require immediate repayment of the Amount of Credit (whether or not accrued due for payment). We will give you notice of our intention to do this and will notify you of the remainder of the Amount of Credit you owe. We may also be entitled to charge you for early termination of your Pay Monthly Mobile Agreement, as further set out in that agreement.

18. Right to statements

At any time throughout the duration of this Credit Agreement you have a right to receive a statement, free of charge, which will show the amount of each Instalment which still remain to be paid, the date on which each is due, any conditions relating to the payment of an Instalment and a breakdown of each Instalment showing how much comprises capital, interest and other charges if interest or other charges are applicable. Unless specifically requested by you, you agree that we may provide you with this and other statements or information in electronic format.

19. Assignment

19.1 You may not assign or transfer your rights under this Credit Agreement to anyone else unless we agree in writing.

19.2 We can assign or transfer our rights and transfer and / or novate our obligations under this Credit Agreement or any part of it, on the same terms, to any third party. You will execute any form of novation agreement that we may require.

20. Other amendments

We reserve the right to amend this Credit Agreement as required by law or regulation without your consent. We also reserve the right to periodically vary these Important Legal terms without your consent where reasonably required to ensure that all consumer contracts are on the same terms.
